

City Index launches the industry's first ever live spread betting and CFD trading app for the Android

City Index's award-winning spread betting and CFD trading application, City Trading™, is now available on the Android mobile phone platform, providing customers with full and secure access to their trading accounts on the move, 24 hours a day.

10 January 2011, UK, London – City Index, a global leader in spread betting, contracts for difference (CFDs) and margined foreign exchange, announced today the launch of the industry's first live trading app, City Trading™, for the Android mobile phone platform.

City Trading™ gives customers with Android phones full access to their trading accounts, including advanced features such as streaming charts with technical indicators, latest prices and market movements, as well as the full range of order types available.

City Trading™ was first launched by City Index in October 2009 for the iPhone™, making it the industry's first live trading app for the Apple handset. It provides clients with full and secure access to their trading accounts on the go. An update to the app, featuring a powerful new charting package and live news, was released in November 2010.

City Index offers its customers access to 24-hour live prices on thousands of global markets through its multiple mobile trading platforms and apps, including iPhone, Blackberry, Java, Windows Mobile, and now Android.

Helen Wylde, Global Head of Marketing at City Index, said: "We are very pleased to be able to offer the industry's first live trading app for one of the fastest growing and most popular mobile platforms, Android. City Trading™ is the industry's most recognised award-winning mobile trading offering and has changed the way our customers trade. We are proud to be the leaders in mobile trading in the industry, and it further reinforces our commitment to providing our clients with unrivalled access to cutting edge technology and the most innovative products available."

To access City Trading™ on your Android mobile, please visit the Android Market on your mobile device, search for City Trading™ and download.

Contracts for difference (“CFDs”) trading, spread betting and margined foreign exchange carries a high level of risk to your capital with the possibility of losing more than your initial investment and may not be suitable for all investors. Ensure you fully understand the risks involved and seek independent advice if necessary. Please note lower deposit rates could allow you to increase your risk.
